Purpose of TAP

- To strengthen academic ties between UCLA and selected community colleges.
- To increase the transfer rates of all community college student particularly those who have had less access to UCLA.
- To provide students with an enriched academic experience by participation in the honors program at their community colleges prior to transfer to UCLA.
- To provide priority admissions consideration for the College of Letters and Science to students who complete the TAP and satisfy transfer admission and major requirements (except Communication Studies, SOAA, TFT, & Engineering).
